Intention

Intention

What is intention? What do you mean by it?

In Islam, the concept of Niyyah (intention) is the foundational principle that determines the spiritual value and acceptance of every deed. It is the silent commitment in the heart to perform an act for the sake of Allah.

The importance of intention can be summarized in three key points:

* Determines Rewards: Actions are judged by the motive behind them. A seemingly small deed done with a sincere intention can carry immense weight, while a large deed done for worldly recognition may hold no spiritual value.
* Distinguishes Worship from Habit: Intention is what transforms a mundane daily routine into an act of worship. For example, bathing can be a simple habit, but with the intention of Ghusl (purification), it becomes a religious obligation.
* Consistency and Sincerity: It serves as a spiritual compass, ensuring that a believer remains focused on seeking the pleasure of God (Ikhlas) rather than seeking praise from others.

As established in the well-known Hadith:

"Actions are but by intentions, and every man shall have only that which he intended." (Sahih Bukhari)

Quranic verses

وَنُنَزِّلُ مِنَ الْقُرْآنِ مَا هُوَ شِفَاءٌ وَرَحْمَةٌ لِّلْمُؤْمِنِيْنَ
"We send down in the Qur'ān that which is a cure and a mercy for the believers."
(17:81-2)
الحياة مع الله
A LIFE WITH ALLAH

وَقُلْ جَاءَ الْحَقُّ وَزَهَقَ الْبَاطِلُ إِنَّ الْبَاطِلَ كَانَ زَهُوقًا
Quran 17:81
And say, 'The truth has come, and falsehood has vanished.
Indeed falsehood is bound to vanish

Search for Truth

Search for Truth 🔍

A Believer is always curious in nature, he is thoughtful. He tries to gather knowledge, from Quran, Hadith & fatwa of Scholers according to his capacity. Most of the time in this era, people search 🔎 informations on internet. He also does.

Here he falls in a Trap , Trap of False Information, In this trap the false is covered on a veil of Truth. It means, Mixture of truth and False / half truth/ manipulated version of true messages.

Yah , Don't forget Shaitaan is always there to misguide the believer. Shaitaan always target 🎯 Believer intention. Shaitaan wants to corrupt his heart , corrupt his intention.

Here is a twist, If Believer intention is pure enough and he is conscious about Shaitaan's trap and if he asks help from Allah constantly, he is safe .

Allah is always protecting him . The Trap he is falling into is a Test for him . Though he falls in trap , he is trying to do good deeds , in a wrong system which he doesn't know Allah guides him to the Right Path through the Quran and miracles .

Many people do not understand the mercy of Allah . Some of them commit suicide due to sickness, failing career, failing love life, losing property E.T.C
They think that if they end their life , they will be free ,after that there is no pain.
But unfortunately they are living in a foolish Paradise.

Surprisingly , on the another hand many Non Muslim people's in Europe are becoming Muslim after seeing Hionious torture, injust is an operation in palestinians.
Here are specific examples and documented cases:

Individual Stories & Public Figures:

*Adrià Calafell (Spain): A 25-year-old Spanish activist from Barcelona. After participating in numerous pro-Palestinian protests and witnessing the resistance in Gaza, he began a months-long study of Islam. He eventually traveled to Istanbul and formally took his Shahada (declaration of faith) at the Suleymaniye Mosque in late 2025.

*Jose Ignacio Peleterio (Spain): A former professional footballer (known as Jota) who played for clubs like Brentford and Birmingham City. He publicly announced his conversion to Islam in early 2024, stating that the way of life and the strength of the community—particularly highlighted by recent global events—inspired his transition.

*Megan Rice (USA/Global Influence): Though American, her influence sparked a massive movement across Europe. Horrified by the violence in Gaza, she started a "Quran Book Club" on TikTok to understand why Palestinians were so resilient. Her public conversion in late 2023 led thousands of others in the West to follow suit, many of whom were young Europeans.

*Nefertari Moonn (USA/Europe Influence): An influencer and fashion designer who stated her conversion was "solely" due to the courage and faith of the Palestinian people. Her story went viral across European Muslim networks as a testament to the power of "Dawah" (inviting to Islam) through character and patience.

The UK "Daily Shahada" Phenomenon
According to reports from late 2025, mosques across the United Kingdom reported a "skyrocketing" number of conversions.
The Data: A study by the Institute for the Impact of Faith in Life (IIFL) surveyed recent converts and found that 20% explicitly cited global conflict—specifically the war in Gaza—as the primary reason for their change in faith.

Frequency: Some community leaders in the UK noted that while they used to see two or three conversions per week, they began witnessing them almost daily following the escalation of the conflict.

The Trap of Shaitaan

The Trap

In Islamic tradition, the "traps" or "snares" of Shaitaan (Satan) refer to the subtle methods used to lead a person away from mindfulness and righteousness. The Quran describes Shaitaan as an "open enemy" who attacks from the front, back, right, and left, using various psychological and spiritual tactics.

Here are some of the key concepts and Hadith regarding these traps:

1. The Strategy of Gradualism (Khutuwat)

The Quran warns not to follow the "steps" of Shaitaan. He rarely invites a person to a major sin immediately; instead, he uses small, seemingly insignificant compromises.

2. Exploiting Anger

Anger is considered one of the primary gateways for Shaitaan to cloud a person's judgment.

Hadith: The Messenger of Allah (ﷺ) said: "Anger comes from the Shaitaan, the Shaitaan was created from fire, and fire is extinguished only with water. So when any of you is angry, he should perform wudu (ablution)." (Abu Dawud)

3. The Trap of Procrastination and Despair

Shaitaan often uses two opposite extremes:

False Hope: Making a person feel they have plenty of time to repent later, leading to laziness in worship.

Despair: Once a person sins, Shaitaan whispers that they are "too far gone" to be forgiven, which is a trap to keep them away from Allah's mercy.

4. Whispers during Prayer (Waswasah)

Shaitaan attempts to steal the focus of a believer during their most direct connection with the Creator.

Hadith: A companion complained about distractions during prayer. The Prophet (ﷺ) said: "That is a Shaitaan called Khinzab. When you feel him, seek refuge with Allah from him and spit [dryly] three times to your left." (Muslim)

5. Private Gatherings

Isolation (physical or spiritual) makes a person more vulnerable to negative thoughts and impulses.

Hadith: "The wolf only eats the sheep that wanders off alone." (Abu Dawud). This is used as a metaphor for Shaitaan's influence on those who distance themselves from a righteous community.

How to Protect Oneself

According to various narrations, the primary "shields" against these traps include:

Dhikr (Remembrance): Constant awareness of Allah makes the heart a difficult target.

Seeking Refuge: Saying A'udhu billahi minash-shaitanir-rajim (I seek refuge in Allah from Shaitaan the outcasted).

Knowledge: Understanding the deen (religion) helps a person recognize a trap before they fall into it.

Dajjal's Modern Fitna

Dajjal's Modern Fitna

Dajjal's System — the ultimate end-times deception (fitnah) warned by Prophet Muhammad ﷺ: a one-eyed false messiah who mimics miracles, claims divinity, and leads masses astray with illusions that blend truth with ultimate evil. In hadiths, he spreads like clouds driven by wind, performs fake wonders (heaven/hell on his sides, rain, food from nothing), yet believers see "Kafir" on his forehead. Modern scholars and interpretations see his system already operating through global tech, media, surveillance, and AI-driven illusions — a borderless digital deception where screens replace reality, algorithms dictate belief, and one "eye" (materialist, godless vision) blinds the spiritual one. It prepares the ground for total control: no need for a single man when the whole world runs on his playbook of lies, surveillance, and false paradises.

Fake paid Islamic scholars (Ulama-e-Soo): These are the "scholars for dollars" — corrupt moulvis, imams, and celebrity preachers funded by regimes, governments, or elite networks to twist Islam into submission. They issue convenient fatwas justifying tyranny, promote "American Islam" or diluted rituals while ignoring justice, hijack mosques/institutes with PR money, and slander true voices. History repeats: Umayyad rulers hired mufassirs to neuter Qur'an's social commands; today, Western media spotlights compliant "fake imams" while real ulama hide or get silenced. Plagiarism scandals, luxury lifestyles, and alliances with power expose them — they divide the ummah, push individualism over jihad against oppression, and act as gatekeepers for the system, selling deen for dunya. True scholars warn against them; the Prophet ﷺ called such people the worst.

TV and Movie industry: Hollywood and global entertainment are drenched in Illuminati symbolism — all-seeing eyes, pyramids, one-eye gestures, occult triangles, butterflies (MKUltra mind control nods), and satanic rituals slipped into "entertainment." Directors and stars flash masonic signs openly (Jay-Z, Beyoncé, Katy Perry performances); films normalize inversion (good as evil, moral chaos). This isn't accident — it's mass programming: subliminals corrupt youth, promote materialism/sexual deviance, erode faith, and condition acceptance of a New World Order. Elite societies use it to mock the public while seeding ideologies that weaken family, religion, and resistance. Disney, Marvel, music videos — all tools to turn souls toward Dajjal's illusions, blending truth with deception until reality blurs.

Mass manipulation by mobile phone apps: Smartphones and social media are the portable Dajjal fitnah infiltrating every home. Apps are engineered as "behavioral cocaine" — infinite scrolls, dopamine hits, algorithmic addiction designed by thousands of engineers to hijack attention, harvest data, and surveil nonstop (location, biometrics, thoughts via likes). Governments and Big Tech run mass surveillance; algorithms push division, misinformation, fake news, and tailored realities that isolate users in echo chambers. Children face eating disorders, anxiety, and grooming; adults lose free will to surveillance capitalism. It enables deepfakes, AI illusions, and total tracking — preparing a cashless, godless world where one "eye" (screen) sees everything while spiritual sight dies. Delete, downgrade, or detox; otherwise, you're fuel for the system.

Jihad e Akbar

Jihad e Akbar

Allah says:

"And as for the one who feared the standing before his Lord and restrained his soul from desires, then indeed Paradise is his refuge." (Quran 79:40-41)

When a believer does good deeds, praises Allah more and does more dikhr, he gets a attacks from shaitan.

But he never gave up , and he should not give up, because it is the way that goes to see “Sirat Al mustakim” .

A a straight path, of Jannat, the path is not easy ,full of struggles, temptations, and attacks from shaitan. A believer always struggles, but for his struggles , he will get rewards from Allah. The Door of Jannat will call him and welcome him inside.

The Prophet (SAW) warned against the nafs as the greatest enemy. Authentic traditions urge constant self-accounting (muhasabah): reflect nightly on your actions, repent, and strive. Practices include:

1.Regular prayer and Quran recitation (shields the heart).

2.Fasting (trains control over desires).

Charity and good character (kills greed and arrogance).

3.Avoiding haram (porn, riba/usury, backbiting, music that fuels passions).

4.Seeking knowledge and company of the righteous.

Jihad-e-Akbar is not pacifism or escapism—it fuels real change. A soul at peace with Allah can engage outer struggles with purity, not rage or ambition. The two are linked: inner victory makes outer efforts sincere and effective.
